Headmaster's Message

Dear Members of the Ridley Family:

Greetings from a bright and sunny Niagara Peninsula, with finally a hint of crispness in the late September air! We are coming to the end of a very special three week season during which a rare and strange perfume wafts over the Ridley Campus — when the wind is right and brings the sweet-sour smell of crushed ripe grapes from the winery to the west. Such heady zephyrs are, naturally, a spur to the eager pursuit both of soccer balls and binomials at the start of Ridley's 95th year. (Apologies to parents who have already read the above lines in the September mailing!)

Enrolment statistics are as follows: largest school ever with 406 in Upper School, 160 in Lower, for a total of 566; by grade and category:

Upper School

Gr. 13: 116 (96 veterans, 20 new, 88 male, 28 female, 90 boarders, 26 day). Gr. 12: 115 (77 veterans, 38 new, 74 male, 41 female, 84 boarders, 31 day).

Gr. 11: 84 (50 veterans, 34 new, 61 male, 23 female, 61 boarders, 23 day). Gr. 10: 91 (52 veterans, 39 new, 73 male, 18 female, 68 boarders, 23 day).

Lower School

Gr. 9: 66 boys (47 boarders, 19 day). Gr. 8: 46 boys (26 boarders, 20 day). Gr. 7: 31 boys (16 boarders, 15 day). Gr. 5-6: 17 boys (4 boarders, 13 day) — 9 are Grade 6, 8 are Grade 5 level. Lower School is full, as that has recently been defined; in fact Grade 9 is too large for our new cubicle accommodations. Upper School is in fact over-enrolled, due to miscalculation of our attrition. We lost approximately half the number of students as is usual through withdrawal from June 12 - September 11, and therefore, we actually have at least a dozen students (and boarders at that) more than we can with optimal comfort accommodate. Living conditions are more crowded than they should be in some of our male residences. But, we are doing well in coping with the numbers. Class sizes have only gone up on average about 1.5 students — standing currently between 18 and 19 students per class. The other pressure points of the Great Hall and the Chapel have proved flexible enough, and sit-down "family-style" luncheon has been maintained.

All members of the Ridley Family should know that given our experience with enrolment this year, all prospective applicants for 1984-85 should be advised to apply by January, 1984. We had a large number of good students who applied too late this year, and due to our over-enrolment, remain stranded on the Wait List. Admissions criteria are primarily current school grades and reports from teachers and guidance counsellors, plus an interview when feasible.

Aside from the size, other new aspects of Ridley include the 18 Grade 10 girls, who have helped to move female numbers to 110. This provides an extremely healthy base for a girl student at Ridley. The concomitant is that we have been able to start girls' Field Hockey this fall, with 35 eager young ladies chopping away on the first day of practice. Lower School sees the inauguration of a new combined Grade 5-6, with Mrs. Nancy Hunt, The Reverend Hunt's much better half, presiding over this extension of the Ridley years slightly downward. Almost half a million dollars of renovation and maintenance on the campus shows most vividly in the refurbishing of the swimming pool, the expansion of female changing room facilities in the Iggulden Gym, the refurbishing of Merritt House 1st flat, face-lifting in the Gooderham West stairwell, common room, and five student rooms, and a totally rebuilt faculty apartment in Lower School.

The Headmaster's annual visits to Ridley Branch meetings have already begun, with a pleasant gathering in Hamilton on September 22. By the time you are reading this, I will have completed a week's swing to the West, with Ridley get-togethers in Vancouver, Victoria, Calgary, and Edmonton. In mid-November, Ingrid and I will be in Bermuda, and just before Christmas, we hope to have a U.S. mid-Atlantic gathering of some sort to mark the occasion of Ridley's return (after 15 years) to the Lawrenceville-Princeton Invitational Hockey Tournament, December 15-16 in Lawrenceville, New Jersey.

Despite the crowding, it has been an almost universal sentiment that the start of the year has been smooth, happy and healthy. There are many challenges ahead, including hard curricular planning for Ontario's gradual divestment of Grade 13; major preparations for the upcoming Centennial Campaign; and planning for a possible Ontario advanced credit Academic Summer Session at Ridley commencing next July 1 (to run in conjunction with Sports Ridley and computer camps). Entering into my third year at the Ridley helm, I feel much more constructively relaxed, thanks to an evitably growing familiarity and the continuing support of a fine faculty and the warm Ridley Family.

T.C.

He was eighty, but, as his last Christmas Card showed, he was still enjoying a full and eventful life. He still wore a jaunty bow tie, wore original and smart hats, walked his minimum two miles a day (until he damaged his foot early in the summer), could be seen at all Ridley functions from sixth team matches to recitals, debates, plays or Chapel. Terry had already planned his annual freighter trip for the winter of '84, his trips to Stratford and England for this summer. In between all this he was still finding time to write, to keep in contact with a host of friends through personal calls and his voluminous correspondence. He was still a delight to talk to (T. had the rare talent of listening and only talked of his own experiences after persistent interrogation). His outlook, though instinctively traditional, was by no means hide-bound. He was, in fact, always willing to consider new developments and modern ideas, which explains, in part, why he was still, at eighty, so interested in, and interesting to, the youngsters who talked to him on the fields, in the dining hall or who dropped in to his room for quiet, solace, or just a chat.

In fact Ridley without Terry will be Ridley with an important part missing. Not a part essential to the operation of the place (Terry would have been the last person to accept such a suggestion), but a part that will be sorely missed in the essentials of the spirit and even the soul of the School. No one has, for so long, epitomized, or contributed to, the traditions and credos of Ridley as has "T.C."

Perhaps it is just as well that most of the readers of this tribute have known Terry, since it is impossible, for me at any rate, to explain what that contribution has been. The bare outline of his life at Ridley certainly attests to his loyalty and versatility. A Lower School boy at eleven in 1913, he graduated in the class of '20 and gained his B.A. from Western University (after a year spent at the University of Toronto). He began training in law at Osgoode Hall, but was forced to withdraw due to a severe illness which permanently affected his health. He returned to Ridley as a master in 1927 and, except for one year's leave of absence, spent (in the best sense of the School motto) the rest of his life there. He taught in the Lower and Upper Schools, was Housemaster of School House, a very successful producer of plays for the Dramatic Society, an editor of ACTA in its thrice-a-year heyday, and in 1945, became Secretary Treasurer of a young and as yet undeveloped Old Boys' Association. For twenty years he devoted his life to the childhood, adolescence and coming-of-age of that Association with as much care and thought, worry and, no doubt, frustration, as a father for a child. In the process he instilled the principles of service and loyalty that characterized his own life.

But again, how does one estimate the special contribution that T.C. has made to Ridley? Perhaps if one had stood outside at the funeral service held in the Chapel and had guessed why each one of us was there, a part of the answer would have emerged. Old Boys who as new boys, had found a haven in his study; friends who had brought their problems to his sympathetic ear; teachers who had sought advice or an outlet for their frustrations; headmasters who had found a sounding board (that talked back on occasion!) for their formulating ideas; parents who had advised their sons to "look up Mr. Cronyn if you need help"; workers from all walks who had experienced his habitual courtesy and kindness.

And inside the Chapel, Terry, from his customary seat which he had occupied for as long as most of us can remember, would have approved of the service, of the School Prayer and specially, of the lusty singing of the School Hymn. As Don Hunt, in his very apt and touching tribute reminded us, here was a man that many of us have heard at the beginning of the Apostles' Creed, say so quietly, yet so clearly, "I believe in God . . ." Requiescat in pace.

Second Century Campaign

1989 marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of Ridley College, and the Board of Governors have decided to initiate a Century II Campaign to honour this centennial. A Centennial Planning Committee recommended to the Board my appointment as Chairman, and with some trepidation I have accepted. The Planning Committee, with expert advice from professional fund raising consultants, has settled on a goal of $15,000,000 total endowment for Ridley as of the start of our second century; as Ridley has currently in the neighbourhood of $5,000,000 endowment funds, The Century II Campaign goal will be $10 million.

These additional funds are necessary for significantly increased scholarship and bursary funds, for support of faculty salaries, for provision of funds for renovation and maintenance, and for certain capital construction. The major thrust is for endowment funds, rather than bricks and mortar expansion. Only by increasing Ridley's endowment can we ensure the School's continued strength in its second hundred years.

A tentative timetable for the launching of the campaign would see us ready for an official kick-off in the spring of 1985, with special donors and the Board having already committed a significant portion of the goal by that time. We are fortunate that in late June, an Old Boy of the class of 1923, who wishes to remain anonymous, gave the Ridley College Foundation bonds and securities worth approximately $1 million for unrestricted endowment funds, and as an initial contribution to the Centennial campaign. We are already one-tenth of the way there!

In carrying out the campaign and the planning process, our committee is calling upon the enormous resources of the Ridley family with all its knowledge, experience and perceptions. To this end, a Conference has been suggested for June of 1984, to include Board, Advisory Council, Alumni class agents, and other interested parties to discuss priorities and needs for Ridley's future. All the Ridley family will also be receiving a questionnaire bearing on the Fund, at some point during this School Year. Finally, we have determined that under no circumstances will the Annual Fund be suspended during the Century II Campaign. It is essential that annual giving continue and those with limited resources will be urged to keep up Annual giving even at the cost of not contributing to the Centennial drive. Further details on the Century II Campaign will be appearing in future issues of Tiger. I would welcome any suggestions about the campaign from any member of the Ridley family.

LOWER SCHOOL NOTES

I have decided that being the head of a school, even a Lower School, is something like being the commodore of a convoy; there is that period of rest, planning and refitting, and then, seemingly suddenly, you are in the midst of it again — guiding, nudging, protecting, pushing, attempting to create order out of chaos, and hoping to make it back into port at the end of the "cruise". Mind you, I know nothing of the sea or of escorting convoys, but there was a sense of "deja-vu" on September 11, with all the master "escorts" welcoming and guiding the well-laden boys, arriving for another trip across another year, bearing their cargoes of turtle-necks, blue jeans, ghetto-blasters and posters. There was decidedly a feeling of "here we go again" about it all; a sense of not unpleasant excitement coupled with a feeling of being caught in something far too big to be stopped, changed or avoided.

We are, if I may carry on the analogy, a larger convoy than last year, beginning the trip with a complement of 160 boys, 93 of them boarders, and 67 day boys — the result of a new intake which equals the largest over the past ten years. Obviously the Admissions Department, under the benign hand of Mr. Cooke, has been a great success — long may it continue! The fact that we had a large Grade Eight last year has resulted in a very large Grade 9 now, with thirteen of them sleeping in Mandeville House, which has the space because Grades 6 and 7 were small in 1982-83.

There is a whole new line to the fleet this year — a "bunch" (there is no other word for it) of busy little Grade Fives — apple-faced and round-eyed at the wonder of it all. They are occupying a space next to Capt. Loat's house — er — ship — under the watchful and protective eye of Mrs. Hunt (and if you think that I am going to make any comparison to a ship of any sort, you are wrong — every metaphor must have its limits, even if set by self-preservation).

There is, of course, a great gap in the Lower School where Terry used to be: in his room, comforting a boy (or a L.S. Head), and dispensing wisdom along with humbugs or salted nuts; at the table in the dining hall, walking through the halls on rainy days, popping into my office with "what are you doing now? — good for you — Dominus Vobiscum", absorbing the slings and arrows of staff jibes as his beloved 'Leafs' or 'Jays' didn't make it again. I am sure that something will be said elsewhere about Terry. To me, it seems that there is a hole in the school that contained a large measure of joy, well mixed with wisdom and understanding.

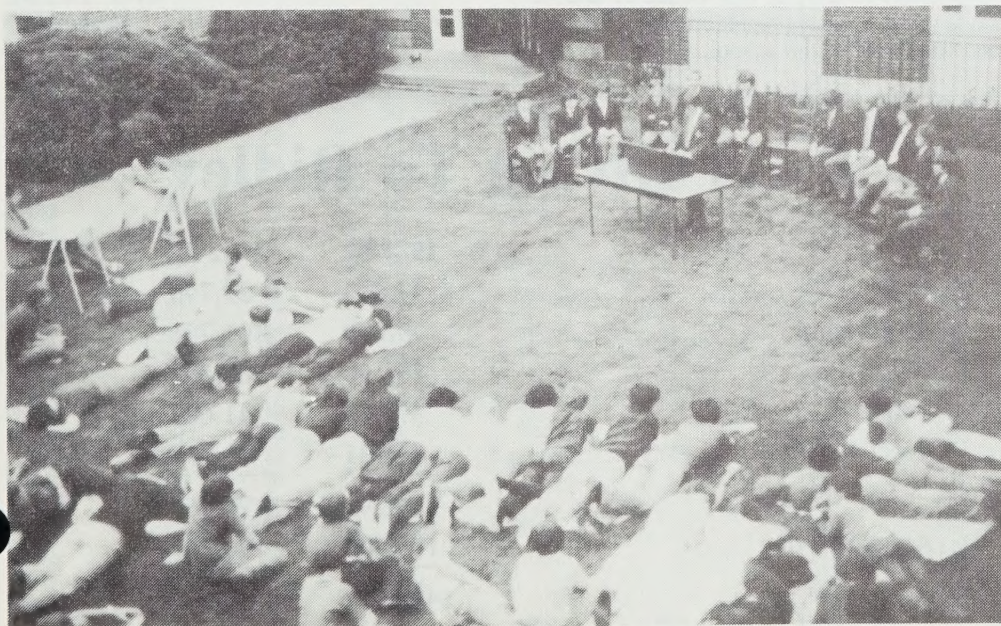

A part of last summer's refit (and our thanks to a benevolent Board) is a new two-bedroom apartment over the reception room, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, who were married in July. Mrs. Milligan (Ann to us all) is teaching school in St. Catharines and attempting to tame the tiger at home with, perhaps, a few signs of progress.

The addition of this apartment separated Frank Hollinrake from his boys in Mandeville House and necessitated a change in housemaster. This role has been taken on for this year by David Cosgrove, and Mr. Milligan is acting as his assistant. Frank Hollinrake has been housemaster of that end for fourteen years, and many changes have occurred under his supervision. He has been unfailingly just in his treatment of the boys. There is no person in the school who has given more of himself, and now, when one sees Mr. Cosgrove with a worried look, can you blame him if Mr. Hollinrake seems to sport a quiet smile? He is now more active with the Association (old boys rather than new boys!), helping to organize the Association Weekend.

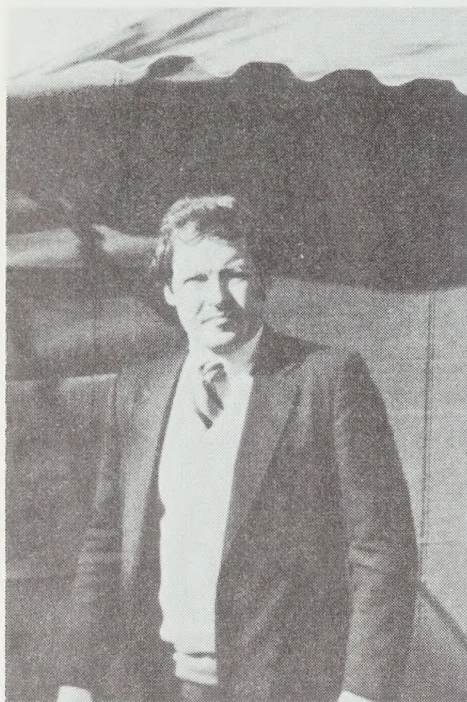

The other new face in the L.S. belongs to David Dancy, a Junior Master who tutors, coaches, travels, supervises and attends Brock University. He came to us from The Grove via Sports Ridley. Also residing in Ridley South is Andrew Corolis, the school trainer, and Peter McGowan a "teaching intern" in the Upper School — both of whom dash through the front hall, to-ing or fro-ing in their obviously busy lives.

So here we are in our small corner, setting out on what will certainly be another eventful, exciting, active, trip across the year, and which one hopes will supply a proper amount of growth in maturity, wisdom and patience. Stand by for squalls!

The Old Boy System Changes

(Specific Changes in the Old Boy System, from Recommendations of the Cronobs Committee, May 1983, as clarified by the Headmaster after consultation with School Prefects, August, 1983).

(1) The System is henceforth known as the New Student System.

(2) The prime thrust of the system is to aid in the constructive adaption of new students, particularly Grade 10s, to the Ridley community.

(3) A Big Brother or Big Sister will be assigned from the Old Students in each House to each new Grade 10 and 11 in the House. The Big Brother/Sister will be responsible for advising and aiding the new student in all aspects of adaption to Ridley — social, academic, and extracurricular — and will render a brief written report on the new student's progress to the Housemaster or Advisor at Fall midterm and again at Christmas.

(4) Personal service will be retained for Grade 10s in the following form through the first term, after which it ends: cleaning up of Old Students' rooms on rotation, including making beds (if requested), picking up clothes, and emptying wastebaskets.

(5) House and School Service for Grade 10s will include House Duties to be assigned and monitored throughout the year, dining hall duty, and any special work details that faculty or prefects may require from time to time.

The Report from the Chairman of the Financial Support Committee

On behalf of the Board of Governors and the Executive Committee of the School, I would like to extend my thanks to all members of the Ridley Family who gave to the 1982-83 Ridley Fund. The results for the fund year ending June 30, 1983 were record results, both in terms of dollars, average giving per donor and number of contributors. To reach these record levels, our thanks must go to those approximately 200 people who gave unselfishly of their time for the need of Ridley. We are very appreciative of their efforts.

Our target for 1982-83 was $195,000 and we just fell short of it, so it is not a year for full congratulations but we are within sight of the breakthrough figure of $200,000 which is our target for the Ridley Fund in 1983-84. With the continued efforts of all members of the Ridley Family that I have mentioned and with a few other people, who have not been contributors to date and who make the decision to get themselves involved in a financial way, I am confident that we can exceed this magic figure.

Ridley is the Number One independent boarding school in Canada. FIRST, and we intend to remain there. Please give the School your serious thought and if you do I know that we can make our target.

(6) Grade 10s will be responsible for learning some basic information about their house and the School, to be tested by School and House Prefects. An initial meeting with all Grade 10s will consist entirely of a calm and orderly exposition of the system and the reasons for its various manifestations.

(7) Grade 10s (at least those taking Phys Ed) will, in addition, have one period per week in the Fall Term with the Headmaster (assisted by other faculty and School Prefects on occasion) to achieve full familiarity with the history and traditions of the School and to hone their self-confidence and public speaking skills.

(8) New Grade 11s will be responsible for basic information about the School and their Houses and will be tested by their House Committees. Grade 11s will also have dining hall duty as in the past, plus specified house duties to be determined in each house.

(9) The House Committees have the responsibility to see that new Grade 12 and 13 students gain an appreciation of the history and traditions of the school.

(10) "Doors" continues in effect. A Grade 10 may be asked to run messages for Old Students in his or her House, up to 4th Dimension time in the fall term. No carrying of books, or verbal or physical harassment, no duties other than those enumerated above.

(11) Old Students may award Penalty Service to New Students for failing to live up to the expectations of the system. A penalty service charge is turned in by the Old Student to his House Committee which will approve it before sending it to the School Prefects for New Student Orientation. P.S. will be served for up to one hour on Wednesdays, Saturdays or Sunday afternoon, as posted each week. New Students who fail to carry out their Penalty Service will receive Early Risings, to be done on one morning every two weeks. New Students may appeal Penalty Service to the House Committee and to the School Prefects for New Student Orientation.
